

Jonathan Rosenberg

Experience 2005-2006 The Great American Film Project Austin, TX

Webmaster-Graphic Designer

- Implemented redesign for the TGAFP website, including new interface and dynamically-driven content
- Responsible for all departmental website publicity, including
 - articles in newspapers, magazines and images on the website
 - promotional articles such as site banners, Flash content, Graphics, Film shorts, etc.
- Adopted better software and tools
- Broadened consistent archiving and source control
- All these activities require frequent contact and negotiation with Project Director

2003-2006 Elevator Art Club Austin, TX

Cofounder-Coordinator-Webmaster

- Developed with 4 other members the Award winning Art Collective
- Launched new dynamic Flash interface and website navigation
- Archived and Directed EAC Projects and Products
- Managed all website content.

2005 Rosalind Haney, R.N., C.C.N Austin, TX

Webmaster-Graphic Designer

- Designed, wire framed, coded, Debugged, and maintained website

2004 Neil Blumofe Austin, TX

Webmaster-Graphic Designer

- Designed graphics, Layout and tested website

Skills

Applications / Web & Graphic Design:

Eclipse, JCreator, Less then Slash, Microsoft Visual C++, Dreamweaver, Flash, Photoshop, Illustrator, Final Cut Pro, Style Studio, Quicktime, MS Office, Sound/Video Editing Applications

Languages:

Java, JavaScript, C++, ActionScript, CSS, DHTML, XHTML, Assembly

Operating Systems: Windows (XP), Mac OS X

Education

The University of Texas at Austin 2006

- Currently enrolled in Data Structures (Java), and CS Logic, Sets and Functions.
- Holds a Junior officer Position in ACM (The Association for Computing Machinery)

Austin Community Collage 2004-2006

- GPA 3.6 and Took classes in PC Assembly, OOP (Java), C++, and Web Page Programming.
- Recognized in Scholastic Leadership in the International Honor Society Phi Theta Kappa